Landscape Architect

~~Rose Building~~

~~Cleveland, Ohio~~

Chester, O.

"Art is the expression of man's joy in his work." Landscape architecture is that art which helps to develop and beautify our outdoor surroundings, whether for mere pleasure or for fitness and harmony in their use.

Its Scope. It may be a small home place with unusual difficulties or opportunities. It may be a country estate with its buildings to be located, its drives, walks, gardens, trees, or shrubbery plantings and wooded fields to be developed. It may be a park, playground, boulevard, land subdivision, cemetery, or even the planning of a city—the making of any kind of private or public land more beautiful, more useful, or more valuable.

Mr. Auten offers his services for such undertakings; to consult with owners, architects, engineers, and others, also to advise, design, or superintend such work in its many phases.

Preliminary Visit. To become acquainted with the problem, consultation on the ground is generally necessary. To obtain the best results, it is often advantageous to help the client select property that will be suited to his use as well as to assist in its later development. Verbal suggestions may suffice, but on large or difficult work, a written report is usually given. If plans are to be made to scale, a topographical survey is ordinarily required.

Preliminary Plan. That our ideas may be clear to the client, a preliminary plan is furnished with explanations. This plan is merely for suggestion and discussion as to the problems involved and when agreed upon, will be followed by a—

General or Working Plan. This can be staked out on the ground showing locations, grades, etc., and may be executed by a contractor or by a capable foreman, by consulting us occasionally.

Planting Plans. Detailed planting plans can be furnished, either for new, or for remodeling of old places.

Supervision. That the plans may be carried out as designed, our clients generally wish us to oversee the work until its completion. Often we are retained for advice as to the maintenance of plantings, or to see that the ultimate design is carried out.

FOREWORD

The writer started with five peonies from grandmother's home in 1905. As the landscape work brought new varieties to light, the list grew—just because of the love for the flower, then they had to be tried out to prove their worth.

With Peonies, as with all flowers, people are coming to use them more and more in decorating. Some varieties in this list have peculiar value for such work. It may be length of stem, cluster of bloom, shadings in color, grace of foliage and stem, the pert open face of the singles or the heavy massiveness of the big fellows.

I shall use the word "Decorative" in the descriptions of such.

TIME TO PLANT

From September 1st till winter.

WHERE TO PLANT

In open sun on well drained and well prepared ground, buds  $2\frac{1}{2}$  inches below the surface. Mulch after the ground freezes. Cultivate so the weeds can not grow and watch results.

PRICE

Is for 3 to 5 eye divisions.

TERMS

Cash with order. Rates quoted for quantity.

Professional Charges

Preliminary Visit. Where a preliminary visit and report only are required, a nominal fee will be charged, depending on the difficulty or importance of the problem and the advice given.

Plans. For Preliminary and General Plans, Working Drawings and Planting Plans, a fee will be charged as may be agreed upon or relative to the cost of the work to be done. In case of revision of plans already accepted, the actual cost of such changes will be charged to the client.

Supervision. For Supervision of work, a charge is made on the time basis unless a fixed charge has been agreed upon to cover definite work to be completed within a definite time.

As Agent. Acting as the client's representative, estimates are made, contracts let, plants and materials ordered at the lowest rates. We assume no financial responsibility for materials used nor for workmanship. We prefer to be employed in the same relation to the development of the grounds as the Architect is to the building. No commissions are accepted.

Charges. An approximate idea of charges can be given when we know the nature of the work and the time it may cover.

Credentials. Mr. Auten had several years of experience in the office and executing the plans of Olmsted Brothers, landscape architects, Brookline, Mass., worked in practical forestry under the direction of H. L. Frost, forester, Boston, Mass., and under Professor C. S. Sargent of Harvard University. The past ~~eight~~ <sup>18</sup> years have been devoted to an independent practice.

He is a member of the American Society of Landscape Architects.
